Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries, Aeroquest Limited and Aeroquest (UK) Limited. All significant inter company transactions and balances have been eliminated on consolidation.

Use of Estimates

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Canada. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates as additional information becomes available in the future. The financial statements have, in management's opinion, been properly prepared using careful judgment within reasonable limits of materiality and within the framework of the accounting policies summarized below.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized when fieldwork is substantially complete, the contract revenue is fixed and determinable and collectibility is reasonably assured. Contracts range for less than a one year period. Costs related to contracts for which field work is incomplete at period end are classified as contracts in process while customer deposits received in advance for these contracts in process are classified as deferred revenue.

Revenue on the sale of equipment is recognized when the equipment is delivered to the customer, the amount is fixed and determinable and collectibility is reasonably assured. The related cost of the equipment is recognized in cost of sales.

Financial Instruments	Unless otherwise noted, it is management's opinion that the Company is not exposed to significant interest, currency or credit risks arising from its financial instruments. The fair value of financial instruments approximate their carrying values, unless otherwise noted.
Foreign Currency Translation	Foreign currency accounts are translated into Canadian dollars as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• At the transaction date, each asset, liability, revenue and expense is translated into Canadian dollars by the use of the exchange rate in effect at that date.</li><li>• At the period end date, monetary assets and liabilities are translated into Canadian dollars by using the exchange rate in effect at that date.</li></ul> The resulting foreign exchange gains and losses are included in income in the current period.
Cash and Cash Equivalents	Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand and short-term investments readily convertible to cash with original maturities of 90 days or less.
Long-term Investments	Long-term investments are carried at cost unless an impairment in value exists that is other than temporary, in which case the long-term investment is written down to fair market value.
Capital Assets	Capital assets are stated at cost less accumulated amortization. Cost is net of related investment tax credits and government grants. Amortization based on the estimated useful life of the asset is calculated as follows: <table><tr><td>Airborne and geophysical equipment-</td><td>30% diminishing balance</td></tr><tr><td>Automotive equipment</td><td>- 30% diminishing balance</td></tr><tr><td>Data processing equipment</td><td>- 30% diminishing balance</td></tr><tr><td>Office equipment</td><td>- 20% diminishing balance</td></tr><tr><td>Leasehold improvements</td><td>- shorter of estimated economic life or lease term</td></tr></table>	Airborne and geophysical equipment-	30% diminishing balance	Automotive equipment	- 30% diminishing balance	Data processing equipment	- 30% diminishing balance	Office equipment	- 20% diminishing balance	Leasehold improvements	- shorter of estimated economic life or lease term

Automotive equipment	- 30% diminishing balance
Data processing equipment	- 30% diminishing balance
Office equipment	- 20% diminishing balance
Leasehold improvements	- shorter of estimated economic life or lease term
Intellectual Property	Intellectual property is recorded at cost and amortized on a straight line basis over 3 years. The value of the intellectual property is regularly evaluated by reviewing the returns of the related business, taking into account the risk associated with the investment. Any impairment of permanent nature in the value of the intellectual property is written off against earnings.
Long-lived Assets	Long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to future net cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which carrying amounts of the assets exceed the fair value of the assets. Assets to be disposed of are reported at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell.

Research and Development

All research costs are charged to operations in the year of expenditure. Development costs are only capitalized if they meet the criteria for capitalization and are amortized over the period of the expected life. Development costs are written off when there is no longer expectation of future benefits.

Income Taxes

The Company follows the liability method of tax allocation in accounting for income taxes. Under this method, future income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities, and measured using the substantively enacted tax rates and laws expected to be in effect when the differences are realized.

Stock-based Compensation

The Company has adopted the recommendations of the CICA with respect to stock-based compensation and other stock-based payments. These standards require that direct awards of stock, liabilities incurred or other compensation arrangements that are based on the price of common stock, be measured at fair value at each reporting date, with the change in fair value reported in the statement of operations.

The Company uses the fair value based method of accounting for all its stock-based compensation. Accordingly, the fair value method of accounting is applied for stock options granted to directors, officers, employees and consultants whereby the weighted average fair value of options granted is measured as of the earlier of the period the options are vested or the performance is complete and are recognized in the financial statements in accordance with the nature of the services or the assets received. When the awards are exercised, share capital is credited by the sum of the consideration paid together with the related portion previously credited to contributed surplus.

The fair value method of accounting is applied for restricted stock units granted to directors, officers, employees and consultants whereby the weighted average fair value of restricted stock units granted is measured from the grant date and accrued in the financial statements over the vesting period of 1/3 per year over the three year period. When the awards are fully vested, share capital is credited by the sum of the consideration together with the related portion previously credited to contributed surplus.
