

2005

MetalCORP Identifies New Airborne EM Conductors on...

August 11, 2005

MetalCORP contracted AeroQuest Limited of Milton, Ontario to carry out the survey using its new AeroTEM X system. This system provided exceptional depth penetration, to depths of up to 400m as well as more precise target definition than conventional systems. MetalCORP management is very encouraged by the results of this survey...